J. PAUL OETKEN, District Judge:

Defendants City of New York and Frias Railyng filed a motion to dismiss on February 24, 2020. This Court's Individual Practices in Pro Se Cases require a Plaintiff to file an opposition brief, which is a brief making legal arguments against Defendants' motion, within four weeks of the date she is served with Defendants' motion papers. Plaintiff has not filed an opposition.

Plaintiff's time to file an opposition is extended to August 20, 2020. His opposition must arrive at the Court's Pro Se Office by that deadline. If Plaintiff's opposition is not delivered to the Pro Se Office before that date, the Court will consider Defendants' motion to be unopposed.
SO ORDERED.

Dated: July 30, 2020
New York, New York

J. PAUL OETKEN
United States District Judge
